from a successful business tour in the Central States.

Ael Bakes & Son have laid in a large stock of selected winter apples which they offer at low prices by the barrel.

The infant child in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilcox, died at their home on Bloomfield Ave., on Thursday.

E. Teall and family have moved in to their house No. 177 Liberty St., which was damaged by fire a few months ago.

The letter carriers will not issue any publication or souvenir to's season. It has also been decided not to give the usual entertainment on February 22d.

The Watseking Glee Club will give a concert in the Methodist Church Chapel tonight. The programme will consist of glees, quartettes and choruses.

land from the Davis estate on the east side of Spruce Street, 50 feet north of Fremont Street, 50x134.

A concert and literary entertainment for the benefit of the Sunday School Christmas fund, of the Park M. E.
Church, was held on Wednesday night.

A laptop and blanket was stolen from the horse-shed at the First Presbyterian Church, last Sunday night, belonging to Herbert Biddle of Glen Ridge.

The annual fair of the Ebenezer M. E.
Mission was opened on Tuesday and continued until today, under the management of the ladies' union. A sum total was realized for the benefit of the Mission.

The Bloomfield Fire Department were called out last Saturday morning at 9 o'clock for a small blaze in the building owned by John Herman, on Glenwood Ave.

Essex Hook and Ladder Company will keep an open house on New Year's Day.
The following members were appointed to complete the arrangements: Wm. L.
Johnson, W. U. Oakes, Chas. H. Johnson, Alfred M. Stager and Frank N.
Unangan.

The Bloomfield P. K. U. V., a German sick benefit society, have elected these officers: President, Otto Hebbelberg; vice-president, John Scheuerer; secretary, Louis Ott; John Schaefer; W.
R. Raab; treasurer, Wm. J. Raab.

sold at the regular meeting of the Essex County Building and Loan Association on Tuesday night, at an average of 4% per cent. id.

The recent dance given by the Cosmopolitan is said to be one of the most noteworthy affairs given in this town; a long time.
The richness of the costumes worn by the ladies adding much to the pictorial uniqueness of the assembly.

James Belden, of East Orange, was the first to arrive at the American House in a sleigh this winter, and received the usual prize of a bottle of wine from the proprietor, Wm. R. Coue, etc.

The first genuine snow storm in this section started early on Wednesday morning. About ten inches of snow fell, causing a delay to the Consolidated and Suburban Traction Companies.

shot and killed Chas. Anderson, colored, in the apartment of the two at No.
196 Glenwood Ave., last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The woman walked in to the police station and gave herself up.
She was taken to the County Jail in Newark, charged with murder.

The residence of D. E. Wilson, on Windsor Place, was entered by burglars early Tuesday morning and these articles stolen: Two overcoats, a gold headed cane with monogram "D. E.
W.", thereon, and a bicycle. The total value of articles stolen was about $200.
The burglars gained an entrance through a front window.

The second informal dance of the Bloomfield Cadet Corps was held at the Armory last Saturday night and proved to be a brilliant event. The building was gayly decorated with flags and

Glen Ridge Notes.

The Ladies' Vocal Club of Glen Ridge gave its first concert of the season of 1896-97 on Tuesday evening, the 15th, in the Glen Ridge Congregational Church, and it was enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. The club, with about double its former membership, sang its numbers, notably the Song of the Norns and several charming unaccompanied choruses, with admirable shading and precision of attack; showing careful training on the part of its able conductor, Mr. J. Appleton Wade. Mrs. Caroline Van De Water Brown, the soloist of the evening, possesses a rich mezzo soprano voice, which showed to great advantage in the very styling of the piece assigned to her in the Song of the Norns.

In pleasing contrast to the rest of the programme was the work of the New York String Quintette, which so delighted the audience that they demanded and received several encores. The club possesses in Miss Mary Penney an accompanist of great merit and her playing was always in good taste. The second concert will be given April 20th.

The Land a Hand Club met at Rev. F.
J. Goodwin's on Wednesday evening.

W. C. T. U.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held on Tuesday, at 3 P. M.

Loyal Temperance Legion School on Thursday at 3:30 P. M. All children, boys and girls are cordially invited to attend.

Beginning with the fifty-fifth volume, the paper will assume the regular magazine size, which will add greatly to its convenience and attractiveness.

THE OUTLOOK gives a compact review of the world's progress; it follows with care all the important philanthropic and industrial movements of the day; has a complete department of raucous news; describes much space to the interests of the home; reviews current literature; furnishes cheerful talk-table talk about men and things; and, in short, aims to give fresh information, original observation, and reasonable entertainment.

The price of THE OUTLOOK is three dollars a year in advance, or less than a cent a day.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR.

He had a sleigh, but he couldn't get a horse. They had all been engaged when he reached the livery stable.

He had a real bad, and finding an old negro with a fat, gray mule, he offered him $2 for a three hour lease of him.

The venerable owner of the mule regarded the sleigh with interest for a few seconds, and then said dubiously to his master: "What do you want?"

"No, sir. I needs no money, but I doen' reckon he'd work in dat contraction. Dar was a heavy snow las' year down wha I live at, ev' de major what I rents fum hitched him up ter one or two evenings. I wuz a-livin' on him dat day, so I doen' know if he'll work for me."

"What did the mule do to him?"

"I dunno, sub. He wud do only one dat did know, but I never did hear him say say."—Atlanta Constitution.
